A REWARD OF $1,000.

Editor of a Socialist Newspaper Offers for the Kidnapping and Delivery of W. S. Taylor to the Kentucky Authorities.

The Appeal to Reason, a newspaper published at Girard, Kan., in a recent issue offers a reward of $1,000 to anyone who will kidnap W. S. Taylor, charged with complicity in the killing of Governor William Goebel, and his delivery to the state officials of Kentucky. The Appeal to reason says.

The Supreme Court of the United States has held that kidnapping is a perfectly legal method of taking an accused man from one state to another. The decision was rendered in the now famous Moyer-Haywood case, in which the defendants were both socialists and workingmen. Will the supreme court of the United States hold to this same opinion if the defendant is a republican and a capitalist?

"The supreme court of the United States says in its recent decision: 'Looking first at what was alleged to have occurred in Colorado touching the arrest of the petitioner and his deportation from that state, we do not perceive that anything there, however hastily or inconsiderately done, can be adjudged to be in violation of the constitution or laws of the United States. Even if it be true that the arrest and deportation of Pettibone, Moyer and Haywood from Colorado was by fraud and connivance, to which the governor of Colorado was a party, this does not make out a case of violation of the rights of the appellants under the constitution and laws of the United States.'

"To give the supreme court an opportunity to pass on a case of kidnapping a capitalist politician, wanted on a charge of murder in a sister state, I will give $1,000 to the person or persons who will capture ex-Gov. Taylor of Kentucky, who is now supposed to be in hiding in Indiana under the protection of the Governor of that state, and return him, forcibly or otherwise, to the state authorities of Kentucky.

"The Appeal has absolutely no interest in the Taylor-Goebel feud of Kentucky, but I want to put it up to the supreme court of the United States to decide a case of kidnapping where the victim is a republican politician and a personal friend of the President of the United States. It will be remembered that Taylor and Goebel were the republican and democratic candidates for Governor of Kentucky. Taylor held the office and Goebel was a hot aspirant for the same. Goebel was assassinated Taylor fled the state and a warrant was issued for his arrest. The Governor of Indiana refused to recognize requisition papers, as did also the state officials of Kentucky. The Appeal to reason says.

"The only stipulation regarding the payment of the $1,000 reward is that Taylor must be handed to the Kentucky authorities and placed behind the bars before the trial of the officers of the Western Federation of Miners is begun.

WISE COUNCIL FROM THE SOUTH

"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. R. Blankenship, of Beck's Teun. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief and after taking a few more bottles I was completely cured; so completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under a guarantee by all druggist price 50c.

Announcement has been made by the representative of the train dispatchers' organization that all dispatchers on the Mexican Central railroad have tendered their resignations to take effect Feb. 1, because it is claimed of the management's refusal to grant an increase in wages.

der and deliver him to the authorities of Kentucky, and it will be a perfectly legal procedure and upheld by the highest court in the land. It matters not how inconsiderately or hastily this action may be done, it will not be a violation of the constitutional rights of Taylor, capitalist and republican. The supreme court will back the kidnappers and protect them provided it holds to its recent decision.

"The only stipulation regarding the payment of the $1,000 reward is that Taylor must be handed to the Kentucky authorities and placed behind the bars before the trial of the officers of the Western Federation of Miners is begun.

In our last issue we took occasion to criticize Judge Carnes in the trial of the Hargises at Jackson and incidentally referred to the Governor because of his unwise selection, as we believed, of a Judge to try the case. The editor of the Somerset Journal who has made a consummate ass of himself, ever since he got his little appointment on the State Board of Equalization, and since which time he has belonged, body, soul and breeches to the State administration, by criticizing in the harshest of terms every editor and private citizen as well, who has seen fit to call attention to those things pertaining to the State administration which they did not endorse, has turned his venom upon us, and were it possible would blot us out of existence because we have the courage to think and speak what we know and believe to be right. Unlike himself, not willing to sacrifice the God given faculties to think and exercise the privilege of an American citizen—the freedom of speech—and as tight as the leech, forever hold our lips in criticism of those in the higher stations of life simply for a little mess of pottage. This the editor of the Journal has done and to add to the already long list of contemptible doings, he has little enough gumption to think he must round up every other newspaper man in the State, who is not willing to be made a tool or mouth-piece of.

The Journal's editor would have its readers believe that the Court of Appeals thoroly vindicated Judge Carnes, and that the editor of the SIGNAL has committed the unpardonable sin in offering a criticism of the rulings, which the court has since passed upon and says in unmistakable language, that Carnes did grossly error, not upon the whole but in part. Who is the editor of the Somerset Journal?

Seph, "Thief!" Campbell, or something of that sort, the fighting editor of the State administration; the right hand bower of the Hargises, who has used the columns of his paper to mould public sentiment in their favor; one of the men who stood for open saloons in Somerset when the good, Christian men and women of the town were making the fight of their lives to wipe out the grog shops and save many a happy home from desolation and dispair and many a noble son from a drunkard's grave. But he who will sell his freedom stand for assassination and vote for open saloons in his town, only the worst can be expected.

EDITOR WALTON says that Stanford has a Commercial Club which can be bought at a very low margin. Then you admit Brer Walton that your town like some few others we know of is doing well to hold on to what it already has.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS

The President will be asked to suggest the machinery through which a national memorial to Robert E. Lee may be accomplished.

A Bill was introduced in the Indiana Legislature Monday by Mr. Sweeney, of Tell City, appropriating $40,000 for the relief of flood sufferers in that State.

The news that the House Committee had voted to abolish the Louisville pension office, together with a number of others, was received with consternation by the employees in Louisville.

Pure food bills modeled after the Federal laws have been introduced in both houses of the Tennessee Legislature.

Indianapolis was Monday selected as the meeting place of next year's convention of the United Mine Workers.

The Tennessee Senate yesterday adopted a joint resolution endorsing President Roosevelt's action in the Brownsville affair.

The House Committee on appropriations yesterday reported the Pension Bill, carrying an appropriation of $138,138,000 for 1908.

The enemies of Senator Bailey have filed charges against him specifying a number of transactions with various trusts from which it is alleged he received fees aggregating over a million and a half dollars. The action of the Texas Legislature Tuesday, however, indicates that the Senator retains the confidence of his constituents, and from this fact it is not believed that there is anything in the charges.

The Senator was re-elected by a vote of 108 to 45, pretty strong evidence of his popularity and a sure sign that very few of his people believe that he is guilty of wrongdoing. The State of Texas, the Nation and the Democratic party are to be congratulated on his re-election. He has served them all faithfully and well and is in a position to be of still greater service in the future.—Ex.

The work of doubletracking the L. & N. from the junction of the Kentucky Central and the Louisville and Knoxville divisions at Sinks to the junction of the Cumberland Valley and Louisville and Knoxville division at Corbin, a distance of thirty-five miles, is now being pushed in earnest. Contractors have established camps and are working a large force of men, grading and boring tunnels between Livingston and East Bernstadt. This section covering a distance of thirteen miles in the hills of Laurel county along the course of Little Rockcastle river is one of the most dangerous to travel and most troublesome and expensive to traffic in the L. & N. system. The many abrupt curves, steep grade and numerous tunnels of the famous "Crooked Hill" region, so much dreaded by railroad men, have led to many disastrous wrecks.

This section covering a distance of thirteen miles in the hills of Laurel county along the course of Little Rockcastle river is one of the most dangerous to travel and most troublesome and expensive to traffic in the L. & N. system. The many abrupt curves, steep grade and numerous tunnels of the famous "Crooked Hill" region, so much dreaded by railroad men, have led to many disastrous wrecks. The immense increase of traffic both to and from the coal fields in the last few years and the putting of through service to the South last year have caused this stretch of single line to become entirely inadequate to the demands made upon it.

The work of construction of the double track was begun last year at Sinks and practically completed to Livingston. Several hundred men are being taken on, and the management says the work will be finished as soon as possible. This will likely be from one to two years. A new right-of-way has been surveyed and purchased from Pittsburgh through East London to Farrington. The doubling of this track line, together with the building of numerous branches either completed or under course of construction, into new coal and timber territories in Bell, Knox, Whitley, Laurel and Rockcastle counties, will give an unparalleled impetus to the development of South Eastern Kentucky's rich natural resources. Contractors are finding it a difficult matter to secure enough men to make up their crews. Many of those who are receiving men's wages are but striplings of boys. There has never been a time when there were as much active development and substantial progress being made in this part of the state as at present.—Corbin Laborer.

STOP AND THINK.—Winter will soon be over and spring is the time when we all want to beautify the last resting place of our dead. Those who want monuments put up in the spring, now is the time to place your order. Come and see me and I will show you something that will interest you.

STOCKHOLDERS MEETING.—Pursuant to adjournment the Stockholders of the Rockcastle County Fair Association are hereby called to meet at the Secretary's office, Brodhead, Ky., Jan. 31, 1907 at 7 o'clock p.m. for the purpose of electing officers for the year 1907. All stockholders are requested to be present.

R. H. HAMM, Pres.

We are glad to announce that Mt. Vernon is to have an opera house. The second floor of Fish's new building will be finished up for that purpose.

BOUGHT STABLE.—Fuqua & Clark have bought the livery stable of Pennington and will consolidate with the one recently purchased of W. M. Arnold.

Bob Langford, son of Tip Langford, and Miss Tessie Sigmon, daughter of Marcus Sigmon, were married at the home of the bride near Wildie Sunday.

The two-story store house, covering over one thousand feet of ground, which was being built by Allen & Sons at Robbin, Ky., on Crooked creek, and which was to be one of the finest buildings in the Eastern part of the county, was blown to pieces and virtually ruined by the heavy wind last Saturday night. Men began work Monday morning clearing away the debris. The house will be rebuilt. Loss about $500.

For some time the people between Lebanon and Corbin have been living in hopes that the long talked of new passenger train to run between Corbin or Livingston and Louisville would be put on the first of the year. The new time card has been made and sent out and there is no further evidence of any additional service. The railroad company evidently does not realize how badly another train is needed and those most in need have never made any effort to interest the company in their behalf. A thing not worth asking for is not worth having, and a little effort is all that is necessary, whether any good results are accomplished or not.

HUNG JURY.—The jury in the case of W. H. Pennington, charged with breaking into the residence of George Chappel, failing to agree. Pennington was returned to jail to await trial at the next term of circuit court, being unable to supply a satisfactory bondsman.—Boyle County Herald. It is the general opinion of those who heard the trial that the letter which Pennington is purported to have written Chappel from Hamilton, O., acknowledging that he had broken into his (Chappel) house and stolen his watch and money, is purely a case of forgery and the attorneys for the defendant say that it will be clearly shown to be such at the next trial, when an acquittal is fully expected.

The Legislature failing to make an appropriation for a representation of the State at the Jamestown Exposition, which begins 26 of next April, a few enterprising citizens not willing to see the State without representation, have taken the matter in charge and by popular subscriptions propose to raise the amount necessary for a display, such as the State deserves and should have. Each county is asked to give a certain amount based on the taxable property of the county and of that amount Rockcastle is asked to give $66.11. We trust our people will promptly consider the matter and donate liberally to this worthy cause. Dr. A. G. Lovell, Chairman of the Committee, will receive all contributions and make proper report, showing your name as one of the contributors.

SPLendid RECOMMENDATION.—Mr. S. H. Martin, who for many years, or until his health began to fail him, was recognized as the leading educator of the county, speaking of the Brown Memorial School and the Principal, Miss Ida M. Taylor, said: "I can heartily recommend the school to any young man or lady for absolute thoroughness in every particular and for the Principal, I want to say without fear of contradiction, that I believe Miss Taylor is as great a success in the school room as I have ever seen." No higher compliment could be paid the school and its management than the utterances of Mr. Martin, one who is able and competent to pass judgment. The number in attendance has reached the one hundred and fifty mark, more than double the attendance of any former year. A boys dormitory is one of the great needs, as several young men had to go elsewhere this year, not being able to get somewhere to board, but that difficulty will be overcome before another year, whether the boys dormitory is erected or not. Keep your eyes on the Brown Memorial School, and in the extreme Western edge of Australia.

Mr. George B. Saufley, who is just 24 years of age, made his first argument before the court of appeals in the case of C. V. Gentry vs. J. F. Peyton et al., and when he had concluded was warmly congratulated by the large number of eminent lawyers who had listened with keen interest to his very able presentation of his case.

One of the most eminent lawyers of Louisville remarked when he had concluded: "There's nothing more to be said from that side of the case. He has covered it all."

Mr. Saufley is a son of Judge M. C. Sanfey, and is well known here. He is at present Master Commissioner of Lincoln county.—Danville Advo-

WRECK.—A few cars in the ditch at the South switch at this place, caused a delay of traffic a few hours Wednesday. A cut of cars was left standing on the main, and the rest of the train was backing in to do some switching; the brakes on the cut of cars either gave way or were not set tight enough to hold them and just as the cars attached to the engine started in the switch the cut-off met them, putting five empties and one loaded car in the ditch. Galie Smith, a brakeman was very slightly injured and the damage done to the company very light.

Nervous Indigestion

The action of digestion is controlled by nerves leading to the stomach. When they are weak, the stomach is deprived of its energy. It has no power to do its work. If you want permanent relief, you must restore this energy. Dr. Miles' Nervine restores nervous energy, and gives the organs power to perform their functions.

For many years I was an invalid, suffering from various diseases. I was so disengaged and seemed to be surrounded by a host of remedies and various physicians, with little or no relief, until one night last summer I was given Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure advertised. I took it to make one more trial which I did in the presence of one of the physicians and the result was excellent. In a few days I began to feel better, which encouraged me so much that I continued to take it. After a few days I began to feel better than a dozen better. It is very much improved in every way, in body, mind and spirit. I am now in full health and point in regard to physical fitness. I have had a singular experience in knowing that Dr. Miles' Nervine has relieved me of my nervous complaints.

January 29 is the anniversary of President McKinley's birth and the Carnation League of America has sent out an appeal for all to observe the day by wearing the last President's favorite flower.

Telephone and telephone wires in the western and central portions of Kentucky were carried away almost entirely by a wind storm which passed over the State Saturday night. Much damage was done and many cities along the Ohio River were cut off from communication with the outside.

Nearly two score are believed to have lost their lives in the accident on the Big Four railroad at Serriford Ind., where a car of powder exploded while an ammunition passenger train was passing. Twenty-two bodies have been removed from the debris, while parts of corpses found in the vicinity lead the officials to believe that the casualties will nearly twice that. No conclusive explanation can be furnished as to the cause of the explosion.

Several buildings collapsed in Cincinnati the walls being weakened by the flood in the Ohio river, and the fire department was unable to reach a burning building, which was lost entailing a loss of several hundred thousand dollars.
